

Field Science Investigations
Foothill Wild Flowers
April 18, 2008

SCHEDULE

- 9:30 A.M. Meet at New Hogan Lake
- 9:45 A.M. Orientation
- 10:00 A.M. Take-A-Part Flowers – Flower Morphology
- 11:00 A.M. Whatz Ur Family? – Plant Taxonomy
- 12:00 P.M. LUNCH at picnic area
- 12:30 P.M. Flower Collecting and Flower photography
- 3:00 P.M. Leave for home

Objectives:

- Provide an opportunity to learn flower structure, function and terminology.
- Provide an opportunity to learn how to use characteristics to identify flowers.
- Provide an opportunity for firsthand observation of flowers in the field.
- Provide an opportunity for participants to learn how to collect and photograph wild flowers.
- Provide an opportunity for participants to experience the wonder and spectacle of the spring wild flower bloom.
- Provide an opportunity for participants to understand their role in the active stewardship of our natural resources.